

HOW WE SUPPORT & DEVELOP CHILDREN'S LEARNING AT WINDSOR

This child is beginning to show an interest in books and pictures. He especially enjoys looking through his learning journey and is able to recognise himself and familiar people. He holds his book the correct way up and turns the pages carefully. Sharing books with him and encouraging him to label items and people will help him to build the confidence to learn new words, which will then enable him to communicate effectively with others.