

Child A demonstrates his ability to remain engaged and focused with an activity of his choosing. He plays alongside other children, taking turns to fill the water container.

He also uses the bottle to fill up with rather than a cup, working out how to fit the lid on before squeezing the water out. He responds to another child's laughter, by looking and laughing too. Adult supports by offering simple vocabulary and support

Working
out
how things
work

